

How to reach us by local public transport

Starting point: Airport Dortmund

Take the Bus "Airport Express" to Dortmund Central Station ("Dortmund Hauptbahnhof"). Then follow the description below.

Please note that the whole way from airport to us takes more than an hour. A taxi ride will normally take about 20 to 30 minutes.

Starting point: Dortmund Central Station ("Dortmund Hauptbahnhof")

Enter the train S 1 heading to Düsseldorf and get off the train at Dortmund University ("Dortmund Universität").

From there you can go by aerial railway ("H-Bahn") towards technology center ("Technologiezentrum"). There is only one station in that direction.

When you get out of the station, turn right. After a walk of about 50 meters you reach your destination. The building of the BioMedizinZentrum, in which Bartels Mikrotechnik is located, is to your right.

Starting point: Düsseldorf Airport

Enter the train S 1 towards Dortmund and exit at Dortmund University ("Dortmund Universität"). From there you can go by aerial railway as described above.
